Declaration

I hereby apply for ADSL Internet Service, particulars of which are included above and agree to be bound by Cable & Wireless Asymmetric Digital Subscriber Line Internet access Terms and Conditions that accompany this application, and which Terms and Conditions shall be incorporated into and shall read as one with this application form. I understand that Cable & Wireless will not be providing firewall protection and I accept responsibility for providing my own security. I accept that, notwithstanding paragraph D1 of the Terms & Conditions, the contract for service is for a minimum period as selected herein and I accept that a fee, as outlined in the Terms & Conditions, will be charged for early cancellations. I accept that I have a 15 day cooling period after service is provided, during which time I can cancel the service without charge on written notice of such cancellation in accordance with the Terms & Conditions. During the cooling period, I can return the modem intact and in its original packaging for full credit less a 10% restocking fee.
